

To

Right to object pursuant to Article 21(1) GDPR

To whom it may concern:

Pursuant to Article 21(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) I object the processing of my personal data:

The following reason exists for my objection:

- I object to the processing necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in you as the controller.
- Your legitimate interests on which the data processing is based do not override my interests and my freedoms which require protection of personal data.

Please confirm receipt of my request. In accordance with Article 12(3) GDPR, I ask for information on action taken until the following date at the latest:

In case of non-compliance with my demand, I will contact a data protection authority. Furthermore, I reserve the right to take further legal action, which may include the enforcement of claims for damages according to Article 82 GDPR.

Sincerely,

Signature

Notes on using this sample letter

1. Please enter your address and the company's address. If available, you can add your customer and/or billing number.
2. Write down what processing of data or data categories you object to. You can also just write: "Any and all personal data."
3. Choose why you object to the processing of your personal data.
 - a) Public interest: In case the data processing is done to fulfill a task in the public interest, you can object to this data processing.
 - b) Legitimate interest of third parties: Data controllers can process your data without your consent based on their legitimate interests. Yet, if your personal freedoms and your privacy rights override their legitimate interests, an objection to the data processing is possible.
4. The company needs to respond without undue delay, at the latest within one month of receipt of your request. That's why you can enter a deadline one month and three days (for shipping) after mailing the request.
5. Please send the letter directly to the company in question (not to consumer protection organisations or authorities).

Important: Your request must be handled at no cost to you. Companies can only charge you in cases of unfounded or excessive, repetitive requests.

Find more information on your right to object at YourData-YourRights.eu.

Last updated: May 2018